Myrtle Crews Have Been Picked For Regatta Races

Many Changes in Seats This Year—Four Crews, Senior and Junior Pair Oar, Senior and Junior Sculls Entered—Honolulu Will Row if They Have to Use Brooms—Other Boat Clubs Show Courtesy to Lulu Oarsmen This Year

Now that the Honolulu have announced that they will row in the regatta on Saturday, September 16, the interest in the big aquatic classic is increasing, and the coming races which will show four crews fighting for honors in the senior race promises to be the best held on the harbor in years.

Despite the fact that the Honolulu crews have been without oars they have been going about their work in the right manner with oars secured from the other clubs, and the announcement yesterday that the crews would participate was one of the best bits of news that has come out on the racing game.

Hilo Crew a Good One
Honolulu, Myrtles and Healanis will enter crews in each event, and Hilo will be represented in the senior event. Word comes from Hilo that the Crescent City boys will be ready this time, and the great race that was staged at Hilo on July 4 bears out the fact that the visitors will be a strong combination.

Healanis has won the senior event for the past two years, but the Myrtles, Honolulu and Hilo crews expect to break this mark, and as a consequence a hard fight is expected. Since the course has been shortened there will be many spurts that will bring out more applause from the spectators.

In the last five years, Myrtles have won twice and Healanis twice, and the Alameda crew once. Here will be an opportunity for the Hilo or Honolulu crews to break in on the wins.

Myrtles have been working the crews out on the harbor, and the men who will compete in the events Regatta Day have been picked. The members who will take the seats are:

Myrtle Oarsmen
Senior Crew—Frank Beckett, stroke; Duke Kahanamoku, No. 5; Arthur Parker, No. 4; Hilo Boyd, No. 3; W. A. Anderson, No. 2, and Norman Oss, No. 1.
Junior Crew—Mack Rosa, stroke; James Hart, No. 5; Elmer Crozier, No. 4; George Chillingworth, No. 3; Erling Hedemann, No. 2, and Percy Johnson, No. 1.

Freshmen Crew—W. Gramberg, stroke; L. Bertelmann, No. 5; J. Evenen, No. 4; Otto Beerman, No. 3; D. Abels, No. 2; H. Able, No. 1.

Senior Pair Oar—Duke Kahanamoku and Arthur Parker, Norman Oss and W. A. Anderson.
Junior Pair Oar—Mack Rosa and George Chillingworth, Elmer Crozier and James Hart.

Senior Scull—Duke Kahanamoku.
Junior Scull—Carl von Aspe.
Boys' Crew—Bush Carter, stroke; Charles Hughes, No. 5; Bryan, No. 4; Vedesch, No. 3; Johnson, No. 2; Johnston, No. 1.

Oss and Anderson are the only two members of last year's crew back in the barge, Duke Kahanamoku was in the junior barge last year. The Healanis crew has only one member of the last year's crew out for practice, but recruits from the juniors and freshmen have given the crew plenty of good material.

George Crozier and Bob Chillingworth, coaches of the Myrtles, have been working hard every evening with the crews, and Bill Rosa has been giving his kid crew a hard workout in preparation for their battle with the Healanis and Honolulu.

Interest in Rowing
Hundreds journeyed down to the harbor last year who had never before witnessed the regatta events and all were well pleased. With additional entries, including a visiting crew, two girls' crews and a Honolulu kid crew, there should be a banner crowd out to witness the events next Saturday.

The girls have been training for the past month and are now becoming used to the sliding seats, and last evening both crews were given a fast spin on the harbor. E. J. Hardesty has kindly assisted them in their practice, and already the girls have showed improved form. Without doubt the aquatic events this year will bring out the largest crowd in history of rowing in Hawaii.

FOUR SWIMMERS AND CLUBS CLEARED OF PROFESSIONAL CHARGE

George Cunha, John Kelli, Clarence Lane and Harold Kruger, and their clubs, were cleared of the charge that they were going to transfer their allegiance from the Hawaii Club to the Olympic Club, at a meeting of the resignation committee of the H. A. A. U. last evening at the Chamber of Commerce.

According to a letter read by John Soper, H. Decker of this city had written to the Olympic Club stating that he could arrange to have four swimmers from Hawaii swim for the Olympic Club at Los Angeles this year. The resignation committee protested against this and at the meeting last evening made the statement that the four swimmers did not know of the arrangement made by Decker. It was moved at the meeting that instant notice be given to the Olympic Club, and the swimmers would have to remain in one city for four months the plan outlined by Decker was not feasible, and swimmers going from one club to the other must swim unattached until their residence is gained. A motion was made that the four swimmers in no way forfeited their rights on account of Decker's action.

JUDO MAN COMING HERE

T. Miyake, a Japanese authority on Judo or Jintitsu on the Pacific coast, with his manager, A. Sakai, will arrive in this city next Tuesday on the Matsushima. E. B. Williams of Hawaii and Frank Kanai of this city will meet Miyake in a match.

JOE YEAGER DIES

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont.—Joe Yeager, famous as a bookmaker and horse owner, is dead. He was operated on for appendicitis a week ago and came here hoping to recuperate.

'BLONDY' HOLDS M COMPANY TEAM TO FOUR SWATS

Engineers Play Great Ball; Williams Holds Ems to No Hits for Seven Frames

Company M	0	5	.000

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent)
FOOT SHATTER, Sept. 9.—After some long delays, due to military duties, the Engineers of C Company once more came into the limelight of fame by tackling one of the companies hidden in the cyclone cellar, and the infantry, as represented by M Company, immediately after the bombardment which it sustained and the aeroplane attacks and the gas clouds and the fire curtains, retired into a still deeper bomb-proof cave, which is about as deep as they can go unless they jump off into Moanalua crater.

The result of the game, theoretically, was a foregone conclusion, inasmuch as M Company's record was not excellent to date, and when the team came on the field there was "reorganization" written glaringly all over it, and the Engineers, owing to a change of McGavin to the second bag and Stockwell to backstop, really looked as if they had strengthened their team. Stockwell was put in to catch in order to save his wounded knee, but he grabbed the orb in clumsy style and had nearly an error, and he scored besides a run as the result of his beautiful three-base hit out to the cow refectory, where Dias dazed, and in addition he had hits, one to left in the third frame and a pretty hot one to third base in the eighth, and this same man (Stockwell) also stole the second pillow in the third. Now, that's what we diagnose as pretty fair for a cripple!

Those Engineers certainly play in luck, and they do stick together. The engineer of the Rapid Transit Company's construction gang waited until the C Company Engineers came to bat in the third row of squares, and then he ran a car up on the new track to the hospital. Of course, all the M Company never saw a car before and they looked at it, while two bases were taken from under their pillows while they gazed, and three hits were whacked out to second and to the "slaughter house" field, and a two-bagger, one of them by Postma, to that unlucky left pasture land; then McGavin pilfered a run and Cain murdered the scare with another trip over the steaming platter. The number of that car was "52," and if you multiply 25 you get the Engineers' score, 40.

Up until the seventh box it looked as if this were going to be one of "Blondy" Williams' great days, and if he were on the road to join the great ones, Alexander, Johnson and Bush, with a no-hit game to his credit, but Dupre, the M Company's catcher, came up and knocked the record all to blizzards with a noble Texas leaguer to that awful hoodoo left field; then in the two remaining innings, Spisak singled through short, Sutton pulled a two-bagger for his whack, and in the ninth Minty knocked a hit to where the first-bagger should have been, but wasn't.

EUGENE HORNER WINS CUP FOR SINGLES PLAY

Hilo Tournament Won From Allan Marshall in Straight Sets on Hawaii

Eugene Horner is singles champion of the island of Hawaii. In his match last Saturday he defeated Allan Marshall in three hard fought sets, and secures permanent possession of the John A. Scott cup. The sets were 7-5, 7-5, 6-4.

The result of the ladies' singles which was published in the Star-Bulletin early in the week shows that Miss Maile Vicars won in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-2.

Miss Maile Vicars, ladies' champion, arrived in Honolulu this morning and will attend Panahou, where she is expected to play a prominent part in tennis circles.

HARRY VARDON MAKES LOW SCORE ON LINKS

LONDON.—An interesting international four ball golf match was played recently over the Mid-Surrey links at Richmond for the benefit of the wounded soldiers' fund. J. H. Taylor and Harry Vardon, representing England, had as opponents James Braid and Alec Herd, the noted Scottish pair. Taylor and Vardon played splendid golf and won easily. Vardon returned the best card of the four, with 32 and 33 for a remarkable 65. The cards: Out—Taylor 4 6 4 4 3 4 3 4—36; Vardon 3 2 4 4 4 3 4 4—32.

Braid 4 5 4 5 3 4 4 3 5—37; Herd 4 4 4 4 5 4 3 4 4—35.

In—Taylor 4 5 3 4 4 3 4 4 4—35; Vardon 4 3 4 3 4 3 4 4 4—33.

Braid 4 5 4 4 4 2 4 4 3 4—34; Herd 4 3 5 3 4 4 4 4 4—36.

HILO CREW HERE FOR REGATTA ON HARBOR SEPT. 16

Crescent City Oarsmen Arrive on Mauna Kea; Expect to Make Good Showing

Confident of making a good showing in the coming regatta, the Hilo crew arrived from the Crescent City this morning on the Mauna Kea. The members of the crew who arrived were: Mel Nicoll, stroke; Bernard Vicars, No. 5; H. Kellner, No. 4; Thomas Forbes, Jr.; George Dewha, No. 2; Bernard Vicars and A. L. Rowat. J. J. Kelly, who rowed in the senior boat on July 4, has been in Honolulu for a few days.

The Hilo boys made a great showing in the July 4 regatta, and promise to be up with the winners in the races on Saturday. According to Mel Nicoll, the crew has shown a wonderful improvement, and the boys are confident that they will not disappoint their admirers.

When the Honolulu crews were in Hilo they were given every courtesy by the members of the Hilo crews, and the boys of the Crescent City proved to be ideal sportsmen. In fact, they treated the visitors so well that there will not be any sore spots should Hilo capture the honors here. The visitors are in good shape for the races and took a short spin on the harbor this morning.

DUKE WILL ROW IN MYRTLE SENIOR BOAT IN REGATTA EVENTS

Duke Kahanamoku, world's champion swimmer, is after the title of world's champion sculler. Duke and aqua are synonymous. Duke has made the senior crew at the Myrtle Boat Club. This is something in itself, and the fact that he has also made the senior scull proves that he has made a record not only going through the water alone, but also in a boat.

Last year Duke made the junior crew, and has improved so much in the past year that he was selected as one of the members of the senior squad. After Duke begins rowing training, you couldn't get him away from the barge into a swimming meet with a crowbar.

TIGERS BUY CUBAN OUTFIELDER
VANCOUVER, B. C.—The Vancouver club of the Northwestern Baseball League has sold Jack Calvo, the Cuban outfielder, to the Detroit Americans. Calvo will finish the season with San Francisco and report to Detroit in the spring.
